AMERICAN CHEMICAL SOCIETY

Doubtless quite a number of the members of the faculty and others on the campus will be interested in the meeting of the North Carolina Section of the American Chemical Society to be held in Raleigh, N. C., at the Y. M. C. A. Auditorium on Thursday, November 6, at 8 p.m. The speaker will be Dr. Oliver Kamm, Research Director of Parke, Davis & Company, who will speak on some subject relating to our present knowledge of the active substances of the Pituitary Gland. The exact title will be announced later. In addition to his attainments as investigator, Dr. Kamm is said to be an excellent speaker who has the faculty of describing technical matter in a clear and lucid manner. He also has a rare sense of humor which he uses very effectively at times in making his points.

NATIONAL BOOK WEEK

National Book Week, November 16-22, will be duly celebrated at the Woman's College Library. The Library has secured for display during the week an exhibit from the American Library Association of fifty American children's books which were shown last May at the International Congress of Librarians in Rome. Both old and new classics are found in the exhibit in editions most appealing to children.

Also the Library has recently purchased a selection of children's books for a newly installed course in children's literature which is being taught by Dr. John A. Carr, Jr. The course holds special interest for girls who plan to teach in elementary grades.

Exhibits are to be seen in the Library in the former Graduate Room, which is soon to be made into a room fitted for the recreation reading of the students.

MID-SEMESTER EXAMINATION

All freshman classes, all required sophomore classes, and advanced classes at the discretion of the instructor in charge hold examinations beginning Wednesday, Nov. 19, at 4 p.m.; also examinations Thursday, Nov. 20, at 4 p.m., and Friday, Nov. 21, at 4 p.m. The Schedule Committee announces examinations for all sections of Economics A and of Physics 1 on Wednesday; all sections of English 1 on Thursday, and all sections of Mathematics 1 and 2 on Friday.

NOTED CHEMIST TO SPEAK AT DUKE

Considerable interest is being manifested on the campus in the approaching visit to the state of Dr. William McPherson, president of the National American Chemical Society, who will speak at the meeting of the North Carolina Section of the American Chemical Society to be held at Duke University, Monday, December 1, at 8 p.m. The message is to be delivered in the New Science Building on the East Campus, Room 114. The public is invited.

Dr. McPherson has a distinguished career in the field of chemistry. He studied chemistry at the University of Chicago, receiving the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in 1899; he received the LL.D. degree from Wittenberg in 1927. He was head of the department of chemistry of Ohio State University for thirty years. At present he is professor of chemistry and dean of the graduate School of Ohio State University. He is co-author with William E. Henderson of a series of textbooks in chemistry. He has been a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science and vice-president of Section C, 1908-9 and 1915-16. He served during the war as Lieutenant-Colonel, Chemical Warfare Service.

ART EXHIBITION NEXT WEEK

The first exhibition of the Duke University Art Association will be held next week on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, February 26, 27 and 28. On Thursday evening members of the Art Association will view the exhibit, and on the next two days it will be open to public. The exhibit will be on the first and second floors of the Woman's College Library.

Though the Art Association was formed only a few months ago rapid progress has been made in assembling a collection of several hundred items, illustrative of European, American and Chinese painting, English and American glassware, porcelain and pewter, early American furniture and tapestries, European and American prints; also a novel collection of books, broadsides, music, manuscripts and prints relating to the Confederacy.

The Art Association has been able to assemble this large exhibition through the coöperation of Mrs. Margaret Barber, of Missouri, a life-long collector, and Professor W. K. Boyd, of the Department of History of Duke University. Membership in the Art Association is not limited to members of the University community, but it is open to all persons interested in the promotion of art.

Southern Conference Basketball Tournament February 27-March 2, Atlanta, Georgia.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CONFERENCE AT DUKE

Beginning next Thursday, February 26, and continuing for three days, the eighth annual conference of Southern Students on International Relations will be held with the Duke International Relations Club. The purpose of the conference is to bring together many alert student minds for an intensive study of the problems involved in international relations, especially those issues which concern world peace.

Among the outstanding speakers for participation in the conference are Pierre de Lanux, director of the Paris Information Bureau of the League of Nations; Edward S. Corwin, McCormack professor of jurisprudence at Princeton University; George Grafton Wilson, professor of international law at Harvard; President Frank Graham, of the University of North Carolina, and others.

There will be sessions each day, registration beginning at 10 a.m. Thursday and the conference continuing with morning, afternoon and evening sessions Thursday and Friday, and a concluding morning session Saturday. The various public addresses will be delivered in the Page Auditorium.

One of this group will speak in York Chapel at each morning class period during Monday and Tuesday, and the addresses are open to the public. On the East Campus addresses will be delivered in the Y. M. C. A. Hall, East Duke Building, at 8:20 a.m. and 10:20 a.m. on Monday, and 8:20 a.m. and 10:20 a.m. on Tuesday.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE: "FOREST CONSERVATION"

Through the coöperation of the United States Forest Service and the Forestry Division of the North Carolina State Department of Conservation and Development, arrangements have been made whereby Mr. H. N. Wheeler, Chief Lecturer of the United States Forest Service, will deliver a lecture on "Forest Conservation and Its Relation to Our Other Natural Resources" in Page Auditorium on the West Campus of Duke University, Friday, March 6, at 8 p.m. Mr. Wheeler's address will be illustrated with a remarkable collection of colored lantern slides.

Mr. Wheeler entered the United States Forest Service in 1905 as a Forest Ranger on the Gunnison National Forest in Colorado. He later served as Forest Supervisor at Fort Collins, Colorado, and for fifteen years was in charge of national forests in Colorado and California. He holds a Master of Arts degree from the University of Colorado and was in educational work for nine years. Mr. Wheeler has been on the lecture platform for the United States Forest Service for over ten years, speaking before schools, service clubs, and civic organizations in practically every state in the Union on the subject of Forest Conservation.

NOTICE REGARDING CATALOGUE

The Catalogue proof of faculty names, addresses, and dates will be posted in the Information Office of the Administration Building, West Campus, throughout Monday and until noon Tuesday.

Faculty members and especially department heads are requested to check the list and to leave possible corrections addressed to Mr. A. C. Jordan. Individuals are to make no changes on the list, and changes so made will be ignored.

The Undergraduate Catalogue proof now is identical with the suggested changes made by departmental heads, and no further changes may be made.

PROFESSOR KEYSER, MARCH 12 AND 13

Professor Cassius J. Keyser of Columbia University will lecture at Duke March 12 and 13. Professor Keyser is Professor Emeritus of Mathematical Philosophy at Columbia, and is the author of many books, such as "Mathematical Philosophy," "Human Worth of Rigorous Thinking," "Thinking About Thinking," "Pastures of Wonder," etc.

Thursday, March 12, at 8:00 p.m., Professor Keyser will lecture in the reception room of the Union on the West Campus. The subject of this lecture will be "Humanism and Pseudo Humanism." Following the lecture there will be a reception in honor of Professor Keyser. (Informal dress.)

CAMERON BECK HERE MARCH 25

Cameron Beck, of New York, personnel director of the New York Stock Exchange and one of the most inspiring and informative speakers in America on vocational and kindred topics, will be a visitor at Duke University, Wednesday, March 25. He will hold two or more conferences here during the day, the principal one being at 4 p.m. His subject at that time will be, "What Modern Business Expects of Its Personnel."

Mr. Beck has spoken before university and other groups in all parts of the United States, having just returned from a trip to the Pacific Coast where he delivered a number of addresses on vocational topics. He is greatly in demand as a speaker at state and national conventions of various kinds, and before educational and other groups.

Further announcement regarding the details of Mr. Beck's addresses here will be given in next week's Calendar.

EXCHANGE OF ANNOUNCEMENTS

Arrangements have been made for an exchange of weekly announcements of campus events of more than local interest between Duke University and other institutions in this section. These weekly announcements will be posted, as soon as received, on the bulletin board in the lobby of the West Campus Union. Similar arrangements are being made regarding the posting of the Duke University Calendar in these other institutions.

TUESDAY EVENING RECITAL

Another in the series of Tuesday evening recitals under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. of Duke University will be held in Page Auditorium Tuesday evening, March 17, at 8:15 o'clock. CAMERON BECK HERE WEDNESDAY, MARCH 25

"What Modern Business Expects of Its Personnel" will be the subject of an address delivered in Page Auditorium Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, by Cameron Beck, widely known personnel director of the New York Stock Exchange. The address will be preceded by a motion picture film, "The Mechanics of the Stock Exchange," this being a most effective picture of the training of the junior employees of that tremendous organization. The public is cordially invited to hear Mr. Beck.

As personnel director of the Stock Exchange, Cameron Beck has had a varied experience in the handling of personnel and kindred problems. He is regarded as one of the most interesting speakers in America today, his speaking tours throughout the year carrying him from coast to coast. A large audience is sure to hear him in Page Auditorium next Wednesday afternoon.

PHI BETA KAPPA DAY

Saturday, March 28, will be celebrated as Phi Beta Kappa Day with a public address in Page Auditorium by Dr. E. J. Goodspeed, of the University of Chicago, whose subject will be, "The Faith of Humanism." By special action of the faculty the third morning period on the West Campus will end at 11:20 instead of at 11:30, and the fourth period will begin at 12:20 instead of 12:10.

"WHY TRANSLATE THE NEW TESTAMENT?"

This will be the subject discussed by Professor Goodspeed, who will lecture to the University community in York Chapel Friday, March 27, at 8 p.m. He is professor of New Testament in the University of Chicago, and is the author of "The New Testament—American Translation," and many other books on religious and social subjects. He is the president of the Midland Society of Authors of the Chicago Theological Faculties Union, and is a frequent contributor to the Atlantic Monthly and other journals.

Professor Goodspeed is a member of the committee now engaged in producing a new translation of the New Testament and his lecture Friday evening on the problems of translating the New Testament derives additional interest from this fact.

ROYAL RUSSIAN CHORUS

The Royal Russian Chorus under the leadership of Princess Agrenova Slaviansky will appear in Page Auditorium, Thursday evening, March 26. The program will be a varied one, consisting of singing, dancing and selections by the Balalaika Orchestra. Tickets will be on sale in the Men's Union each day from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

A REQUEST

Now that the Commencement season is approaching, numerous requests are being received by the Department of Public Relations and Alumni Affairs for Commencement speakers from the Duke faculty. It will greatly facilitate the efficient handling of this matter if members of the faculty will list with this office as soon as possible the dates of any speaking engagements, Commencement or otherwise, that they may have made already for the next sixty days. Kindly let us have this information at once. Coöperation on the part of faculty members in this matter will be greatly appreciated.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE ON JAPAN

One of the interesting events of the coming week will be an illustrated lecture on Japan by Dr. A. S. Pearse, professor of zoölogy, in the auditorium of the Biology building on the West Campus, Friday, April 24, at 7:30 p.m. During his absence in the Orient last year on a mission of research in his field, Dr. Pearse spent considerable time in Japan, and his lecture is sure to be decidedly informative as well as entertaining.

DINNER OF HISTORY CLUB

Members of the faculty and of the student body are cordially invited to attend the dinner of the History Club Friday, April 24, at 6:30 in the East Campus Union. Dr. Eckenrode, the speaker, is Director of Archaeology and History in the Virginia State Conservation and Development Commission. His writings in American history include, "The Revolution in Virginia," "Jefferson Davis, the President of the South," "Rutherford B. Hayes, the Statesman of Reunion." Reservations for the dinner may be made with Miss Ruth Ketring of the University Library. There is a charge of seventy-five cents.

CAROLINA GLEE CLUB TUESDAY EVENING

The Duke University Y. M. C. A. presents the sixth of a series of Tuesday Evening Recitals—the University of North Carolina Glee Club, under the direction of Harold Sheldon Dyer, Page Auditorium, Tuesday, April 28, at 8:15 o'clock. This group is one of the South's most outstanding musical organizations. The Club's program on next Tuesday evening will include numbers from the works of Bach, Wagner, Grieg, McDowell and other worthy musical composers. There will be no admission fee.

MAY DAY AND ALUMNAE HOME-COMING

Saturday, May 2, will be a most interesting day at Duke. It is the time of the annual May Day Pageant and Home-Coming to which members of the University community and the alumnae always look forward with eagerness.

During the morning alumnae visitors will arrive and greet friends and acquaintances. At 3:00 p.m. there will be the annual Alumnae Tea in the Alumnae Room in the Faculty Apartments on the East Campus. This will be followed at 5 o'clock by the May Day Pageant (The Dance of the Day), with Miss Elizabeth Caldwell as queen. This will be in the University Stadium, West Campus. Following the pageant at 6 p.m. the Tea Gardens in the Stadium will be open for the serving of refreshments, the proceeds being used for the benefit of the Y. W. C. A. At 8:30 p.m. the exercises of May Day will be concluded with the presentation in Page Auditorium by the Taurian Players of a modern version of Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew."

"ROBIN HOOD"

De Koven's famous "Robin Hood," considered by many critics as America's greatest comic opera, will be presented by the Musical Clubs of Duke University in Page Auditorium, Friday evening, May 22, at 8:15. This is by far the most pretentious undertaking ever attempted by the Musical Clubs, and from present indications the production promises to be their very best. Very seldom is "Robin Hood" ever given with college students taking the leading roles, as will be the case at Duke on this occasion.

The following four seniors have leading roles: W. M. Upchurch, Jr.; E. K. McLarty, Jr.; C. S. Hooper, Jr.; and Helen Peacock. They are likewise supported by six other very excellent singers from the other classes. There will be a chorus of sixty-five and an orchestra of twenty-five.

J. Foster Barnes is in charge of the production and he is supported by a corps of the following very able assistants: G. E. Leftwich, Jr., Director of Orchestra; A. T. West, in charge of scenery; Mrs. Barnes, Director of Women's Glee Club, and Miss Janet Griffin, in charge of dancing.

Tickets are on sale in the University Union and the Woman's College Union each day at noon, and already the entire mezzanine is sold out. Prices are .75c, $1, and $1.50.

AT WOMAN'S COLLEGE LIBRARY MONDAY

An interesting feature of the week will be the informal talk and showing of paintings and pastels in the Library of the Woman's College Campus at 4 p.m. Monday, May 18, by the artist, Mary De B. Graves. A cordial invitation is extended to members of the Art Association and their guests.
